MEDIA ACCESS

Note that for the 2023 Women’s Final Four and the Division II and III Championships media room interviews will be in-person and virtual. Locker rooms will be open for media interviews following games and the cooling-off period as well as during times media room interviews are taking place on practice days. Click here for 2022-23 championship interview policies.

CREDENTIALS

Credential Requests

Media desiring credentials to cover the 2023 Women’s Final Four and the Division II and III Championships in Dallas regardless of the participating teams must apply online at http://www.ncaa.com/media. Institutional media should apply via their team sports information contact. The online site provides information for reservations at the media headquarters hotel and parking passes. Applying media representatives will be notified via e-mail in regard to the confirmation or denial of their application.

Credential Distribution

Credentials will not be mailed. Recipients must present a government-issued photo ID. A sign-in sheet for individuals to confirm receipt of credential will be required. Media should be prepared for security screenings (walk-through magnetometers) and bag checks to enter the building each day.

Credentials will be distributed at American Airlines Center. Media should follow the signs located outside of American Airlines Center to the credential office, the Hangar Team Store Entrance, 3030 Olive Street.

Pickup times are as follows:

Media Collateral

Limited printing will be conducted on-site, Championship media materials and information, including pressers, team/conference game notes and all in-game materials including box scores, game books, quotes, note etc. will be provided via the Women's Basketball Championship digital media workroom.

Food and Beverages

A complimentary media meal, for credentialed individuals only, will be available daily at American Airlines Center from March 30 through April 2. Beverages and snacks will also be available on a continual basis.

Photography/Videography Policies

During the game photographers/videographers MUST:

- Wear designated photo vests
- Shoot within the designated photo boxes to the left of the goal when facing the basket on each end of the floor.

During the game photographers/videographers WILL NOT:

- Enter the playing court, except for a brief period after the national championship game only.
- Use strobe lighting at any time during the event.
- Shoot from the stands, with the exception of the approved Upper Photo positions.
- Utilize tripods in the arena bowl.
- Keep bags on the court and perimeter of the court. Bags MUST be kept in the media work room.

Photo Vests

Photo vests will need to be checked out from the media workroom prior to game 1 of the semifinals. Photographers should return vests immediately following the championship game or prior to leaving the Women's Final Four, whichever comes first.

Photographers who do not return vests will receive an invoice for $50.

Photographers assigned to the first photo row must sit on the floor. Camping style and/or inflatable chairs can be used in the front row. For photographers assigned to background photo boxes, a 12-inch stool will be provided. This will be in each back row box and MUST remain there following the games.

Photographers who take the stool from the photo box will receive an invoice for $50.

Remotes

Remote cameras at the feet of photographers must be on a floor plate and cannot in any way be secured to the floor. These cameras must be placed within the outlined photo box. All remotes must be approved by the NCAA and must be manned by someone credentialed and allowed to be courtside.

Note: At no time should a camera or camera equipment be placed in the “run-off” lane on either side of the basket. This includes equipment on the floor or connected to the goal support sticking out into the run-off lane.

Other Photography Information

Couriers: Only couriers have “in-and-out” access to the playing court area, and these individuals are required to display a credential at all times when tending to remote cameras and other technical digital photo equipment. They shall not loiter around the playing court or obstruct the view of any ticketed patron.

Team Benches: No media personnel or equipment shall be in the team bench area, and no media personnel may communicate in any way with persons in the team bench area. Video camerapersons, reporters and producers will not be allowed on the court during the course of play. During postgame award ceremonies, photographers will be allowed onto the apron of the court.

Team Content Personnel: Team content personnel (two per team) may have locker room access and on-court pre- and postgame access as granted by the school SID. In-game rules will still apply.

Broadcast Window: The championship games are subject to the 30-minute rule, in which all broadcast entities not awarded exclusive rights must cease live video capture and/or broadcast within the arena. Video captured by schools during the game may be utilized after the broadcast window has ended.

Mult Box: For all other media, there is a mult box available (upon request in advance) for ENG crews to plug into the feed in order to get highlight footage. Please visit the NCAA Broadcast Services page, the Digital Highlights Usage Policy and Footage Usage and Licensing Policies for additional information.

Terms and Conditions: Except with the prior written approval of the NCAA, no photographer, news entity, media agency or other individual or entity receiving a credential hereunder may sell photos of the Division I Women’s Basketball Championship. Click here for NCAA Championships Photography Terms & Conditions.

Upper Photo Positions

The preferred upper photo positions will be located in section 106, with the reverse angle available in section 119. Additionally, there will axillary locations in the corners of the concourse in sections 102/103, 111, 115 and 122. Please plan to bring at least a 300-400 mm lens. Note: The preferred positions in sections 106 will be a shared space with adjacent ESPN cameras, with a camera platform made available to improve sight lines.
Satellite Truck Parking

Limited satellite truck parking is available outside American Airlines Center. These spaces are very limited. Note that all satellite truck units will be responsible for providing their own power and security. Contact Wellington Hughes, Director of Events, American Airlines Center (Phone: 214-665-4232; Email: whughes@aacntr.com) with any questions and to request satellite truck parking space.

Audio/Video Distribution

The NCAA will provide press conference content via a pool feed in the audio/video distribution area in the media workroom at the American Airlines Center. This feed is available in HD 1080i with embedded audio. To record the feeds, media must provide a recording unit to access the live footage. BNC connections are required for the HD Mult Box / Press Bridge. Equipment must be able to accept these types of feeds and utilize those types of cables or adapters to record news conferences. Stations and networks broadcasting in 720p will be responsible for cross converting from 1080i to 720p.

Frequency Coordination

A dedicated frequency coordinator will be on site at American Airlines Center (IT Help Desk in media workroom) to provide assistance with channel distribution and to assist with any questions. For frequency requests/questions, please contact Kelly Moore with Keller Communications (Phone: 972-243-7160, Ext 401; Email: kmoore@clearcall.com).

Participating Institution Radio

Team radio should apply for credentials through the team media list being submitted by the participating team sports information contact. A maximum of three (3) seats located on the concourse level shall be reserved for each participating institution's radio network. Team radio will broadcast from positions provided in Section 123. All stations intending to broadcast any game of the championship must complete a radio agreement and submit it before the game that will be broadcast. No exclusive rights shall be granted, except in those instances when a participating institution requests such rights for a station or network that contracted for exclusive coverage of the institution's regular-season games. Such exclusive rights shall be restricted to the markets in which exclusivity existed during the regular season. If more than one institution has radio stations in the same market, exclusive rights shall not be granted in that market. All rights fees must be paid to the NCAA's radio rightsholder in advance. Stations will be charged for each game broadcast. If the originating station, or any station within the network intends to stream the broadcast over the Internet via its station's Website or any other third-party website, an additional fee will be charged. The station streaming the broadcast is required to supply a link of its audio player to the official NCAA Championships website, ncaa.com. Onsite questions can be directed to Scott Davidson, Audio Broadcast Systems Engineer, American Airlines Center (Office: 214-665-4299; Email: sdavidson@aacntr.com)
Telecommunications

The NCAA will provide complimentary wireless services and a number of courtesy hard lines at American Airlines Center, courtside and in the media work room/photography work areas. The only way to ensure that you will have access to a standard business line or high-speed Ethernet line is to order individual phone lines by contacting Doug Williams, Chief Technology Officer, American Airlines Center (Office: 214-665-4299; Email: dwilliams@aacntr.com).

Statbroadcast Real-Time Stats Feed

StatBroadcast® Live web and mobile stats for media are available via your laptop or by phone. Instructions, on how to access along with link and password will be provided on site.

MEDIA INTERVIEW POLICIES

Press conferences will be conducted on the day before each game and immediately after each game. The host media coordinator will have the authority to request any student-athlete to attend any press conference but should work with the participating institution’s head coach and SID, as well as a designated pool reporter (if available) representing the United States Basketball Writers Association to select postgame press conference participants. Each participating institution shall make student-athletes available at all scheduled press conferences, breakout sessions and in the open locker room media availability times.

Press conferences will be conducted in-person and virtually. Zoom links will be available in the digital media workroom.

Cameras, Recorders

All electronic media desiring to record the proceedings in the interview room will be required to use the connecting devices supplied by the NCAA. No individual filming of the interviews will be permitted unless authorization is granted by the NCAA.

Telephone and virtual Interviews

Coaches and student-athletes not participating in the postgame virtual press conference may conduct phone or virtual interviews as soon as the cooling-off period expires.

Locker Rooms

Participating team locker rooms will be open to media for 30 minutes on game days following the designated cooling-off period, and on practice days for 30 minutes during the times that team is participating in the formal media interview room press conferences.
Distribution

All formal press conferences will be recorded and distributed on the NCAA Digital Media Hub (https://ncaa.veritone.com/). Press conferences from all rounds of the championship will be streamed live to YouTube.

Press Conferences Schedule

The head coach and a minimum of two first-team players will participate in the scheduled press conferences that will take place in the media interview room in the American Airlines Center. Press conferences will be conducted in-person and virtually.
